Development is the official journal of the Society for International Development.

Aims and Scope:

Since 1957 Development has explored the cutting edge issues of human centred development. With alternative perspectives on civil society, development policy and community based strategies for livelihoods, gender and social justice, Development keeps readers up-to-date on the challenging issues of today's rapidly changing world.

Development aims to be a unique resource and point of reference for the dialogue between activists and intellectuals committed to the search for alternative paths of social transformation towards a more sustainable and just world; tackle the hard hitting issues of today, listening to the oppositional voices and bringing in local and innovative perspectives from the margins to the global development discourse.
